

Category Rating Plan Economist GS-0110-11

GS-0110—11 Economist

Best Qualified 95-100

Specialized experience must include ALL of the following:

Develops study objectives, collects and compiles data, conducts statistical analysis and produces draft and final reports

Develops scope of work for studies produced under contract, including evaluating proposals, monitoring investigators progress and technical review of draft reports.

Reviews and evaluates congressional legislation including economic analysis requirements as to their relevance and effect on the service mission.

Provides technical advice and assistance to other Service offices in the development of their economic analyses to ensure the technical quality of the analysis, its presentation and its interpretation.

Works and coordinates with staffs of other federal, state and private organizations on matters relating to economic analysis of natural resource and conservation issues.

Well Qualified 85-94

Specialized experience must include ALL of the following:

Develops study objectives, collects and compiles data, conducts statistical analysis, and produces draft reports.

Develops scope of work for studies produced under contract, including evaluating proposals, monitoring investigators progress and technical review of draft reports.

Reviews and evaluates legislation including economic studies from a variety of sources as to their relevance and effect on agency or firm workload.

Provides technical advice and assistance to outside programs in the development of their economic analyses to ensure the technical quality of the analysis, its presentation and its interpretation

Qualified 70-84

Specialized experience must include ALL of the following:

Collects and compiles data, conducts statistical analysis and produces draft reports

Evaluates proposals, monitors investigators progress and conducts technical review of draft reports

Reviews and summarizes legislation including economic studies by other offices or agencies as to their relevance and effect on agency or firm workload,